

Convenience Valet Announces Appointment of Barry Feld to its Board of Directors

May 31, 2019

Convenience Valet announced the appointment of Barry Feld to its Board of Directors, effective today. Convenience Valet is a portfolio company of Weinberg Capital Group, a private investment company based in Ohio.

"Barry will bring in-depth retail and innovation experience to our Board," said Ronald E. (Chip) Weinberg, Jr., Managing Director & Principal of Weinberg Capital Group. "We look forward to his fresh insights on our business priorities as we continue to grow at an accelerated pace."

Barry brings over 30 years of relevant strategic specialty retail experience in leadership roles including Chief Executive Officer and President of Cost Plus World Market where he successfully grew the company and ultimately sold it to Bed, Bath and Beyond. After the sale, Barry continued to drive growth for the parent company through new retail teams, innovative platforms, and his charismatic leadership. Barry also serves as the Chairman of the Board at the Retail Management Institute at Santa Clara University where he leads and collaborates with both C-level private sector and academic professionals.

Steve Jungmann, President and CEO of Convenience Valet commented, "We are pleased to welcome Barry Feld to our board. Convenience Valet will benefit from his unique perspective, growth mentality, and retail enthusiasm. His experience and track record of success truly speaks for itself."

Barry Feld noted, "I am excited for the opportunity to join Convenience Valet's Board and I look forward to drawing on my experience to support the continued growth transformation of the business."
